Since 1977, the travel exchange movement pioneered by Friendship Force International has given people the unique opportunity to connect in ways that transcend boundaries to promote goodwill, respect, and understanding. This movement was embraced in Dayton, Ohio in 1979, by Jeanne Comer and her many recruits and supporters, who believed in the mission and vision of Friendship Force. Her leadership provided adventure, better understanding of other cultures, and a network of friendships worldwide.

Friendship Force friendships are a powerful and authentic. The force of friendship impacts positive change and empathy around the world.
